BE MEMBERS TOP THE CONTRACTS LEAGUE

Twenty members of supply chain body Be have been recognised as among the 40 best performing contractors in 2003 within a league table compiled by leading trade magazine, Construction News.

Be member, Amec, was found to be both the number one contractor and civil engineer despite not making the top half of the table in 2002. Amec landed £1.6 billion worth of work last year, including an £850 million package of airport runway work for BAA.

Be members made up nine of the top ten contractors with Balfour Beatty, Bovis Lend Lease and Laing O'Rourke in the top five.

Other member companies appearing in the top 40 include:

- Taylor Woodrow
- Mowlem
- Carillion
- HBG
- Kier
- Wates
- Costain
- Galliford Try
- Bowmer and Kirkland
- Miller
- Birse
- Shepherd

In the sector-by-sector analysis, Be members also scored highly with Gardiner & Theobald topping the Quantity Surveyor category closely followed by Davis Langdon & Everest and Gleeds in second and third place.
